This red sash or "fajin" is a very distinguished accessory for the campero suit. You wear it as a belt, attached to the waist. The short outfit or "campero" is a very typical suit, peculiar to our "ferias", our official holidays, rural duties, "tentaderos" or horse shows. The short outfit or "campero" suit is elegant and luxurious: normally it is composed of a large brim hat, a opened jacket with lapels, a shirt with collar or a pleated shirt, a vest (optional), a scarf, a pant with charms (caireles), with five holes using only two. Regarding the shoes, we suggest boots (botas camperas).
