FlamencoExport offers a collection of dresses for dancing with a very simple cut, very practical but also very stylish. Furthermore, the fabric adapts itself to your body. These dresses are perfect for dancing flamenco in classes and in stages too.

The Alegría model dress for dancing, in one piece, sleeveless, with a V-shaped neck-line and back. The interior of the body has lining to make it more comfortable and feel pleasant when it touches one's skin. The bottom of the dress (the skirt part) has two ruffles. The dots fabric is the typical flamenco.

The dress is made of a plain, woven, lightweight, sheer and airy silk-like fabric, which is well suited for dancing and is made of 100% polyester. As for its length, it would be best for it to reach one's ankles.

This kind of dress is used by dancers such as Sara Baras, Aida Gomez.
