If a left-handed person wants to play flamenco guitar as a left-handed and not as a right-handed person, he must have a special instrument with the strings the wrong way but also all the other guitar elements.

Almost all left-handed guitarists are playing as right-handed guitarists. And of course the audience does not notice that (only when the guitarist is giving autographs).

Flamencoexport have the possibility to order any of these guitars for left-handed guitarists.
