This gypsy is a piece with an innovative design and represents Spanish folklore. Spectacular figure of a flamenco dancer in full swing with the skirt rolled up, ready to stamp. She is a dancer of resin with an original black flamenco dress with white dots and frills from the knee and these frills make a nice train.

Accessories are red and combine with flower hair, earrings and shoes.

Flamenco hair is tied up with a "caracolillo" (ringlet) very typical of gypsy women.

This gypsy is a pure handmade Spanish figurine, it is made by artisans and they use the Modernist Trencadís Mosaic technique of Gaudí.

It is a piece with an innovative design inspired by the Modernist Trencadís Mosaic technique of Gaudí. Hand-painted with more than ten colors.
