The DVD Flamenco Guitar Lessons by the Masters Themselves. Caño roto. Jerónimo Maya. is in Spanish with English Subtitles

Jerónimo guides you through his specific techniques of Rasgueados, Picado, Arpeggio, el Cantor and Legado.

Jerónimo not only demonstrates these techniques separately, but also in practice, by playing 4 complete compositions, replayed slowly on a split screen with close ups of the left and right hands and a partial dynamic on-screen compas. The accompanying book provides authentic transcriptions, written by Max Herzog in close collaboration with Jerónimo in both standard music notation and tablature.

The DVD includes in depth interviews with Jerónimo and his famous family, discovering the origins of his incredible talent from an early age, the importance of his family, his roots and philosophy of music. The DVD also includes performances with his family and studio artists.
