Acompañamiento para baile

The bailaor José Galván returns with the second volume of this series, taking one more step on the way towards learning flamenco dancing. Directed at intermediate level learners, it contains two CDs the first one has the dance and the second one is just the accompaniment to the dance. This album looks at garrotín, tarantos, bamberas, tangos, rondeñas, zorongo, caña and martinete. José Galván is accompanied by Manolo Sevilla's singing, Rafael Rodríguez on guitar, and Zoraida and Paqui del Río hand clapping.

This second volume raises the level of study a little, it includes the martinete and tarantos styles, which are the next step for the student and for those already initiated in flamenco dance.
