This Cd contains three different types of rhythms: Tangos, Tanguillos y Rumbas, though they have in common the capacity to change from one form to another, according to the speed and circumstances.

Each rhythm has approximately 10 minutes of a version with the guitar, and without the guitar so that you can choose the rhythm that you need.

At the beginning of each rhythm, there is a song by JOSE PARRONDO, accompanied by the guitar of JOSE MANUEL ROLDAN, to give an idea of what can be done with these rhythms.

*NOTE: Compás is a term used in flamenco to mean rhythm and accent.
