This collection of pieces makes an integration of both philosophies, mixed with the most expressive classic technics with the most rooted popular rythms. Contains three vals, three boleros, a tango, a samba, a bossa nova and a cumbia-samba.Ten original pieces for guitar of medium difficulty, with a marked popular character and a classic toque. Rythmic music, harmonious, with catchy melodies and a latin tune presents in almost all the works. The recording of the CD has been made by the international soloist Toni Cocoli, who is the responsible, from 2009, of the spreading of this music all around the world, and has received a fantastic reception from a various public. The mix of the classic technic with popular rythms make that these pieces are the ideal accompaniment for any guitarist who wants to impress his public with something different.
