The last concert of Camaron de la Isla.

The show was about to be cancelled at the last moment. He came late, very late, but he came. He was coming from Nimes, and on his face we could see an infinite tiredness. He could not not come, he said "the fans deserve that i am here". As soon as he took sit, on the stage, his tiredness got away. He gave everything, taking risks with all notes, and he had a resounding success. What seemed to be impossible came true, tarantos, bulerías, tangos and fandangos. It was the last sharing madness. The last public apparition of the genius de la Isla. Camaron got asleep on the 2 of july 1992. Jose Manuel Gamboa. Limited edition CD + t-shirt Camaron and Tomatito "San Juan Evangelista 92"
