In his second disc "Chicuco", we find a Sergio Monroy more mature in an artistic way, more advanced, however we don't forget from where he is. In his keys, we find him, his old and new masters. He knows flamenco and he is flamenco, he absorbed it since he was a child but he never renounced to other styles of music. A great dish for acute palates; the quintessence of the flamenco of the XXIth century of Sergio Monroy piano voice. Chicuco, a stylish flamenco jazz disc.
