Navajita is a band influenced by american rock and blues, also close to latin sounds, that is developing a peculiar style of flamenco flavoured songs quite acclaimed among the youngest audiences. This record includes rap, bulerías in a funky style, rock, and plenty of the artistry of Jerez (Cádiz), the land they come from. The first single is entitled 'Oscura es la noche'. Overall, it has eleven tracks, in which they count on the cooperation of Ariel Roth, Ana Belén, Manzanita and Mucho Muchaco.
