Ladrón de amores is Los Chichos' first album in ten years. Los Chichos, one of the most succesfull groups in Spain and of the rumba genre, release this new effort with 10 new songs. 'Ladrón de Amores' is the first diana of an with lyrics drawing from past years of rumba and music similar to rumba pieces from Los Chichos in the 70's.

For this release, the brothers crossed the Atlantic in search for influences and musicians like the Cuban Luis Dulzaides and the Panamenian Vicente Borland.

'Ladrón de Amores' has a sound that proves the group's maturity. Queco, the producer and the composer, Luis Cortés 'Lin', provide the most emotional moments of the album.
