A mixed between Cuba and Spain

The music from this CD is like magic. The record, which takes mostly Cuban ballads, and whispers them, gruffly, balances the classicism of Valdes' piano with the wavering voice of Cigala.

This is a wonderful mix between the Cuba's Latin rhythms with the Spain 'cante jondo' of the ancient Flamenco music. The parts are incredibly music communion a master piano player as Bebo Valdés and a great Flamenco voice as Diego Cigala.

It's a listening pleasure, full of feelings, good repertoire and excellent recording.
