On this cd "Sabicas y los cantaores", Sabicas offers 12 songs, the best of his era, as Niña de la Puebla, Juanito Valderrama, Estrellita Castro, El Carbonillero, Angelillo and Carmen Amaya among others.

Following the example of Niño Ricardo and later Paco de Lucia, Sabicas marked an inflection point in the history of the flamenco guitar. He incorporated innovative techniques and styles, amazing details. He also showed a technical virtuosity, really impressive. Quality is also a labelled for all his hits, and a real lover of flamenco guitar has the duty to have his discs. He always offered "toques" flamenco and very impressive reruns of other composers.
